

Catholic Daughters of the Americas®

To: Local, Campus, JCDA, Territorial, and State Court Regents
From: Connie Dronette, National Facebook Page Contest Chairman
Re: 2024 National Facebook Page Contest

Greetings to all Catholic Daughter Courts- State, Local, Campus, JCDA and Territorial

Enclosed you will find the Contest Guidelines, Facebook Page Suggestions, Instructions for Submissions, Entry Form, and Contest Score Sheet for the 2024 National Facebook Page Contest. Please be sure to pass along this information to your court Facebook Page administrator as soon as possible so she knows about the contest and the guidelines.

PLEASE be sure to review the qualifications. There are so many courts that have a dynamic Facebook Page, and we want to make sure they do not get disqualified for not following the rules.

TAKE NOTE: It can be easy to copy articles, stories, poems, recipes, emojis, clip art, etc. from the web or from emails that have circulated. Since many such items don't seem to have authors listed, the assumption often gets made that these items are free to use. However, a large number of such items are copyright protected (yes, even free clip art) and it is illegal to use them without permission. Articles, stories, poetry, clip art, photographs- any created and posted work falls under copyright law. Contrary to widespread belief, there does not need to be a copyright symbol or statement present for a writing, picture, or clip art to be protected by law. It is best to assume all items are protected by copyright or trademark law and seek permission before using them. Even if you post something without realizing it is protected, you could be taken to court and end up paying a great deal of money. CDA insurance does NOT cover copyright infringement cases. Use of non-original material without permission is grounds for disqualification from the Catholic Daughter Facebook Page contest.

Don't have a court Facebook Page yet? Don't worry. We have a division for those with a new Facebook Page. so you won't be competing against those who have had their Facebook Page for years.

WHY NOT START A FACEBOOK PAGE .TODAY!

- Draw in new members.
- Educate new members (or even long-timers) about our organization.
- Show that we are an international organization.
- Keep everyone up to date on the events and activities of your court.
- Keep members who can't be at meetings in the loop!

We have courts at every level that are dynamic, faith-filled, and loving. Let's get out there and share our story!

2024 NATIONAL FACEBOOK PAGE CONTEST

To be eligible for the 2024 National Facebook Page Contest, all entries must be POSTMARKED ON OR BEFORE APRIL 1, 2024. Facebook Page entries will not be accepted for judging after the deadline.

Local, Campus, and JCDA Courts submit entries to the State Facebook Page Chairman by March 1, 2024. The 1st place winner in each category and division will be submitted by the State Chairman to the National Chairman.

State and Territorial Courts submit their Facebook Page contest entries directly to the National Chairman.

Facebook Page will be judged on the following categories:

- Layout (appearance, neatness, spacing, and all required elements)
- Headlines (interest, appeal)
- Creativity in design (including use of clip art, pictures, humor, etc.)
- Freshness of content
- Links to appropriate sites
- Coverage (local, state & national news, projects, and activities)
- Please refer to guidelines page for specific requirements and what each site must include.

Consider the following ideas and suggestions to enhance your sites:

- Ask your Court Chaplain or District Deputies to post on your Facebook Page.
- What about asking your Regent, other court officers or chairmen to post on your Facebook Page?
- National and State Post
- Posts with Pictures make your site more fun.
- Acknowledgement of members makes a Facebook Page more personal and informs other members who cannot attend meetings. (consider thank you messages, sympathy, birthdays, and special celebrations of all kinds)
- Inform members of activities coming up. They can “Save the Date.” Members need to plan far ahead for some events like state and national conventions.

Just a few notes to keep in mind:

There will be 3 judges for the national Facebook Page contest. Judges will be from various backgrounds and not all from the same organization. The chairman or anyone related to any of the entrants may not judge.

Facebook Pages not available at the time of judging will be disqualified. Three attempts will be made.

Prizes will be awarded in each category, so let us know about your amazing Facebook Page and receive recognition for your court.

2024 National Facebook Page Contest Guidelines Connie Dronette, National Chairman

State Regents should appoint a State Facebook Page Contest Chairman to oversee the contest on the state level.

All Facebook Pages are required to include the following:

(failure to include or comply with any of these elements will disqualify the entry)

- 1. The CDA mission statement (in “about”) and Catholic Daughters registered logo (on Title page) These two items identify CDA as a national organization and should be prominent.
- 2. Court name, number, and location of the court
- 3. Contact information for the Regent or the site Facebook Administrator
It is important to protect our officer and member information. Home addresses and phone numbers should not be listed. Please use only email addresses.
- 4. Post about the Circle of Love Program
- 5. Post about Local/State/National Projects
All sites are to have information on local, state, and national projects. Most information is expected for the court’s own projects with at least general information on the other levels of the Order.
